

THE VICTORIANS INSTITUTE CONFERENCE

“By The Numbers”

October 1-3, 2010 | University of Virginia

PARKING: Those traveling by car may park in the UVA Central lot on Emmet Street. Take a ticket as you would normally. You will be able to pick up a parking pass (to validate the ticket at the registration desk in Monroe Hall).

MONROE HALL: Most panels and all plenary sessions will be held on the first floor of Monroe Hall. The Registration Desk will be located near the foyer entrance. Friday and Saturday lunches and the Saturday evening reception will be held in this building as well.

NEWCOMB HALL: Several Friday morning sessions will be held in Newcomb Hall, on the same floor (3rd) as you enter; depending on construction, you may need to use the entrance on the south wing of the building. Both the Art Gallery and the Kaleidoscope are at the north end of the hall. The student union food court is located in the basement level of Newcomb Hall.

BUS STOP: At the University chapel, a chartered bus will drop off and pick up those participants staying at the Residence Inn Milmont and the Courtyard Marriott North. A bus schedule will be provided separately.

PAVILION I: Pavilion I and its rear garden will be the site of our Friday evening wine and cheese reception (5 p.m.), as well as the venue for the Victorian amateur theatrical presentation, “The Mendacious Mariner!”
